2026 Civil Engineer of the Year

ASCE Oklahoma Awards

The ASCE Oklahoma Civil Engineer of the Year Award recognizes an individual who has demonstrated outstanding leadership, professional excellence, and service to the civil engineering profession. This award honors a licensed civil engineer whose career reflects dedication to advancing the practice of civil engineering, upholding the values and mission of ASCE, and positively impacting communities within Oklahoma.

Nominees are evaluated based on their professional achievements, leadership within ASCE and the engineering community, contributions to the profession, and commitment to mentoring and service.

Please share a narrative responding to the following question about the nominee:

Summarize why the nominee deserves to be named ASCE Oklahoma Civil Engineer of the Year. Describe how the nominee has demonstrated excellence in the practice of civil engineering, leadership within ASCE or related professional organizations, and meaningful contributions to the profession. Highlight the nominee's impact on projects, communities, mentorship, public service, or advancement of professional standards in Oklahoma. (Maximum 500 words)
