

67-19 Sr. Project Manager (Water Utilities Engineering): Provide assistance, management and oversight of capital projects which may include studies, design, construction and associated efforts related to water distribution, water treatment, wastewater collection and wastewater treatment. Related activities include scope and budget preparation; development of professional, specialty and construction contracts; technical review of submittals and reports; determining compliance with City and State standards; coordination with other divisions, departments and agencies; and managing pay claims and payment process. Requirements: Valid driver's license, Bachelor's degree in Engineering or related field, and twelve years of experience in engineering and construction administration. Professional Engineer's license preferred. Salary range: $67,704.00 - $96,595.20, DOQ, plus comprehensive benefits package. A resume and completed City of Stillwater application are required for consideration. Closing date: 7/31/19